

SRCHA Kevin Pole Youth Scholarship

The purpose of the SRCHA Kevin Pole Youth Scholarship is to assist our youth in furthering their future educational pursuits by obtaining either a degree, trade, or technical skill and therefore assisting in their future careers. This scholarship is open to SRCHA members in good standing who are in grades 11 or 12 of the current calendar year.

The scholarship will be held in trust until the recipient is accepted into an accredited institution and provides SRCHA with letter of acceptance.

The applicants will be evaluated based on the following:

>30% on current/past involvement (including volunteering) within the SRCHA and the Cow Horse Industry

> 50% based on submitting all requirements (see details below)

> 10% based on extracurricular equine activities

>10% based on extracurricular school and or community activities

The applicant must submit the following requirements:

*Written Essay on one of the following two topics

-Who has been your greatest influencers when it comes to horses (or Cow Horse) and why?

-How can you use the time you spent in the youth classes to give back to the sport of Cow Horse in the future?

The essay must not exceed 2 pages typed in 12pt Arial font.

Please note if selected, portions of the essay may be used in print and or internet promotion of the SRCHA youth scholarship program.

*Two written references from the list of 3 options

-SRCHA member in good standing

-Professional in the equine world (trainer, coach, judge, etc)

-Personal Reference (excluding Parent, relative, or guardian)

References must indicate how long they have known the applicant, they must have knowledge of the applicant's activities, and must be typed in 12pt Arial font.

*Transcript of the recent grade report

*Must be SRCHA member in good standing

*Letter of acceptance if it has been received already (if it has not then funds will be held in trust until such time)

*Completed Application Form (see attached) The SRCHA Scholarship committee will review applicants and notify the recipient.
